

House Resolution No. 4141

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse daily activities in order to recognize milestone events in the lives of such illustrious Show-Me State students as McKenzie Ingram of Walnut Grove; and

Whereas, in light of her academic achievements, leadership abilities, and interest in international affairs, McKenzie Ingram has been invited to participate in a 2006 People to People World Leadership Forum which will take place in Washington, DC; and

Whereas, McKenzie Ingram will join other outstanding sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students from across North America to learn, be challenged, and earn academic credit while exploring the most prominent monuments and institutions of the United States; and

Whereas, McKenzie Ingram will enter America's centers of justice, legislation, and history to witness how successful leaders develop strategies and foster change; and

Whereas, her role as a delegate will allow McKenzie Ingram to take part in daily small-group discussions and activities designed to build knowledge, self-confidence, communication skills, and leadership abilities; and

Whereas, McKenzie Ingram will be able to make lasting friendships with future colleagues and will rank among the elite in academic and career pursuits:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of McKenzie Ingram for participation in the People to People World Leadership Forum in Washington, DC, and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of McKenzie Ingram of Walnut Grove, Missouri.
